FOREWORD . . .

THE vast sea surrounds the little barnacle as it adheres to the giant vessel. Though the ship may move, the animal is protected and sheltered from the wiles of the deep. With this secure abode and close companionship, the barnacle is encouraged to grow.

Surrounded by life and its often confusing activities, we too, like the barnacle, have clung to the security of our school. Though the years have brought changes, our class has been guided and protected by the school and its people. This constant encouragement and companionship has made us free, secure citizens. Yet, like the barnacle, we will always be bound to our Alma Mater . . . Barnstable High School.

"Look Above and Beyond"

DEDICATION

To

FREDERICK M. HODGE

Principal

WE, the Class of 1953, pay affectionate tribute to Mr. Frederick M. Hodge, who has guided the lives of countless students through his competence in administration, understanding of young people and human nature, and devotion to his profession. Our beloved principal will long inspire us to greater achievements.

"None Name Thee, But to Praise . . . "

"Here is the FACULTY, which you'll find Always co-operative, always kind."

Barnacle Staff

Coquille paper? What's that? . . .

Who has the activity sheets? . . .

Three different people went to one merchant for an ad. We can't have that! . . .

May I have a pass for seventh period? . . .

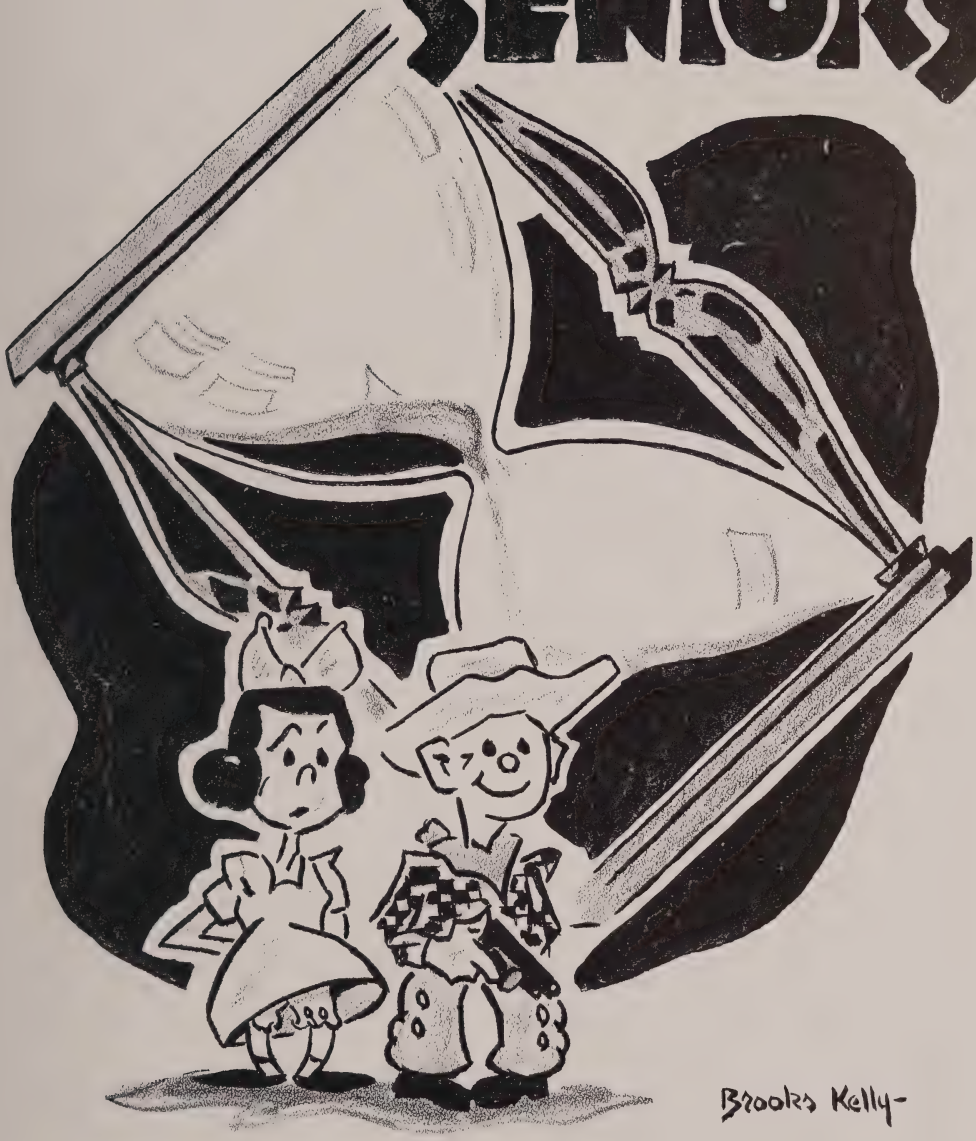
Brooks! Push up your glasses! . . .

Segerman! Quiet down! . . .

To the Barnacle Staff, these statements are familiar. But as the initial confusion dissolved, we could see the yearbook grow into a tangible object. Through the prodding of our Chief Editors, Thomas Hadley and Marilyn Jacobson, the "underlings" produced the material necessary for printing deadlines. The Senior personals were written under the leadership of Deborah Howes and Judith Lagergren, sports articles were done by Mary Lewis and Robert Behlman and activity reports were prepared by Elaine Murphy. Art Editor Helen George set up the advertising section, while Brooks Kelley adorned the Barnacle in his own inimitable fashion. The difficult task of group photographing was ably handled by Carol VanBuren. Then, all of the material was typed by Judy Higgins.

None of this would have been possible, however, if Sheldon Segerman, advised by Mrs. Waldman, had not conducted the unusually successful advertising campaign. To these two individuals and their crew, we owe a debt of gratitude.

SENIORS



Our Memorable Events at Barnstable High

OUR life at Barnstable High School actually began in the seventh grade. We remember that the New England Music Festival which was held in South Portland, Maine, drew fourteen Barnstable students. "The Gondoliers" was presented by the school in April, with Mr. Wiggin as the director and Miss Barton, director of music. The boys' glee club made their first appearance at a Christmas concert. There was a successful drive for new band uniforms during that school year. Good Government Day was first established while we were seventh graders.

Several faculty changes affected us. Mr. Harvard Broadbent, our guidance director, became Director of Instruction, Guidance and Testing for the schools of the Town of Barnstable. Miss Giffels, who led many of us in the field of art during later years, was appointed art instructor. Mr. Luther Howes replaced Mr. Arnold Rogean as basketball coach.

Very few activities were open to us at this time, but surprisingly, we entered into the school life easily.

Sheldon Segerman and Marilyn Jacobson worked on the "Clipper". Most of the Athletic Association members were seventh and eighth graders. This was also true of the Junior Red Cross. An outstanding example of kindness and enthusiasm was the Janet Brock Fund Drive sponsored and carried out entirely by our 7C division.

We were "old hands" when we returned in the fall of 1948 to enter the eighth grade. There were many new faculty faces for us to meet; namely, Mr. Naylor, Mr. Esposito, Miss Gath, Mr. Gesin, Miss Wright, Miss Sears, Miss Dacey, Mr. Fratus and Mr. Singer.

In the sports field, we saw B.H.S. win the Cape Cod Basketball Championship and the golf and track teams reorganized. Jay O'Brien was on the track squad. Although 1948-1949 were great sports years, ironically, Barnstable High had but one three letter man, Senior David Fish!

The "Clipper" used six of our members, Shirley Andersen, Rita Bray, Cynthia Mackie, Barbara Madden, Sheldon Segerman and Anne Slavin. This magazine received a first place rating at a Columbia Scholastic Press Association contest. The "Clipper" also gave Robert Behlman the distinction of being "Ship's Buoy".

Three of our class members, Jean McElhaney, Gael Campana and Betsey Hall, won magazine campaign awards.

"Trial By Jury" was presented in April and twelve students attended the New England Music Festival in Wellesley.

But most memorable to us was the formation of the "53 Club". It was our own idea based upon our seventh grade Guidance Club. We strove to help others and to help ourselves. This new club collected $125 for the March of Dimes, sponsored a dance, and earned over $50 for a Milk Fund. These eighth grade activities were led by President Dorothy Whiteley, Vice-President William Arthur, Secretary Shirley Holmes and Treasurer Kathleen Sullivan. Mr. Arnold Smith, who advised us in our beginning school adventure, was later to lead us in our final endeavors.

Full-fledged Freshmen we were in September of 1949! Barnstable High School had many first places during this school year. Josephine Daniels was not only Governor of Girls' State, but President of Girls' Nation. Her picture appeared in "Time" magazine shaking hands with President Truman.

The Barnstable agricultural boys won the cattle judging award for Barnstable County at the Brockton Fair.

The "Clipper" was again awarded a first place rating in the nationwide contest for school magazines. Pat Richards was a member of the staff at this time.

The girls' basketball team won the Cape Championship. Dorothy Whiteley played with that team. The baseball team also brought to Barnstable High the Upper Cape Championship.

It was the first time that the agricultural department did forestry work. Barnstable High received the privilege of working on state forest land in Centerville. Many notables attended the dedication exercises held in June.

The traffic squad was revived during this outstanding year. Louise McDonough, Mary Lewis, Joan Prada, Robert Anderson, Marilyn Jacobson and Sally Dixon were members of the traffic team.

The first track meet held in many years was run. Barnstable piled up 47 points to Yarmouth's 25.

Paul Thomas, not only was named Ship's Buoy by the "Clipper", but won a trophy for being the most valuable football player in the district. That was quite an honor for a ninth grader.

Mr. Norman Levinson advised our "'53 Club". We elected Kathleen Sullivan, President; Joan Prada, Vice-President; Ann McLean, Secretary and Judy Higgins, Treasurer. We sponsored a faculty tea in November, a Christmas dance in December and took a trip for ourselves. Mr. George transported us to a Provincetown game.

Paul McManus and Dorothy Whiteley were our representatives on the Junior Red Cross.

The school year 1950-1951 brought us the privilege of electing class officers. We had reached our long desired goal! Under the leadership of Mr. Bertram Singer, we named John Alberghini, President; Kathleen Sullivan, Vice-President; Sally Dixon, Secretary, and Ann McLean, Treasurer. Anne Slavin and Sally Greene became our Student Council representatives.

Newcomers to our class were Carol Anderson, Rosemary Harmon, Arnold Rovner and Ernest Rohdenburg. With the help of the entire class, the traditional Sophomore Hop was held in February, at which event Ann McLean and Thomas Hadley were named Queen and King of Hearts. Ann also was named Ship's Belle by the "Clipper", which was manned by Deborah Howes and Brooks Kelley.

Thomas Hadley was made the manager of the football team, a position he held for the next three years.

Brooks Kelley's label design for Cape Cod beach plum jelley won first prize in a contest. He also drew cartoons for the Cape Cod Standard Times.

Barnstable was not idle in sports during this year, for Mr. Charles Howes' baseball team won the Cape Championship. The "Boosters' Club", which was to later back a winning football team, was organized by interested townspeople. It was a definite help to both players and spectators.

Intramural hockey was played by winners Mary Sylvia, Louise McDonough, Sally Dixon and Anne Slavin. They were given the privilege of playing two games with Harwich High School.

Miss Nehubian's girls won the Upper League Basketball Championship.

Dorothy Siddall became secretary of the band, a position held by her for three years.

1951-1952! For the first time in 44 years, Barnstable produced an undefeated football squad. This was our Junior year top event, for many of our class members helped to bring home this cherished honor.

Under the guidance of Mr. Arnold Smith, we selected John Alberghini, President; Bob Behlman, Vice-President; Sally Dixon, Secretary, and Ann McLean, Treasurer. Our first class project of the year was the purchase of class rings. Here again, we proved pioneers, for Brooks Kelley designed a new school ring, which has since been adopted as the standard school ring.

Incidentally, Brooks also won a $50 first prize in a cover contest for the Barnstable Town Report. Judy Lagergren won fourth prize in the same contest. During this same year Gael Campana was elected to the Student Council.

Judy Higgins was elected to represent Barnstable High at Girls' State. John Alberghini and Thomas Hadley were named Barnstable's delegates to Boys' State.

This junior year was exciting as the Red Raiders became the 1952 Class B Champions of the Small and Medium Schools Tourney.

Mary Lewis, most valuable hockey player, and Sally Dixon, most improved player, were presented trophies by the Boosters' Club.

Helen George reigned as Queen of the Homecoming Dance for the football boys.

Later in the year, she served as first lady-in-waiting for Queen of the Junior Prom, Ann McLean. Second lady-in-waiting was Louise McDonough.

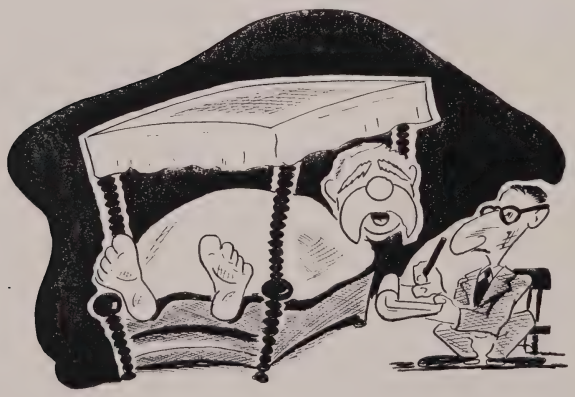
And with such a store of pleasant memories, we now entered our final semesters at Barnstable High in 1952.

Again, Mr. Smith steered us through our most active, but also most enjoyable year. Our officers for our final sojourn were John Alberghini, President; Robert Behlman, Vice-President; Sally Dixon, Secretary and Ann McLean, Treasurer. Elaine Murphy was elected to the Student Council.

Sally Dixon was a "Ship's Belle" in the "Clipper", as was James Burnham, "Ship's Buoy". John Alberghini represented Barnstable High School at Good Government Day in Boston. Sally Dixon received the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award.

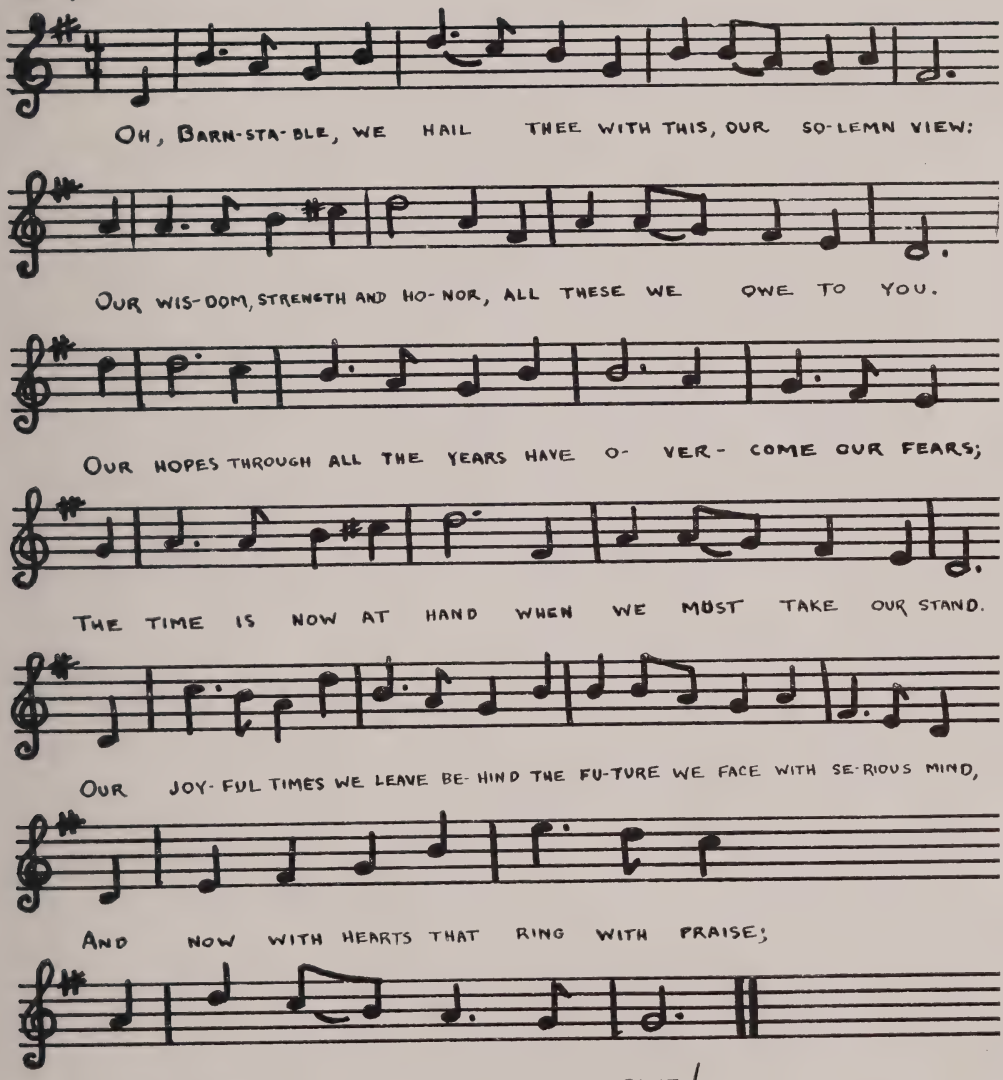
Mr. Groves successfully directed our only dramatic endeavor, "A Swift Kick". Thomas Hadley was editor of the "Barnacle" and Sheldon Segerman launched and completed a tremendously successful advertising campaign for funds.

But now our secondary school life is ending. Class Day, class banquet, and graduation will ring down the curtain to close our happy years. But before we leave, may we express our sincerest appreciation to the administrators, to members of the faculty, underclassmen, friends, and most important, to our parents. These people have brought us lovingly and carefully through our troubles and problems. They have shared our honors and achievements. We humbly thank them all.

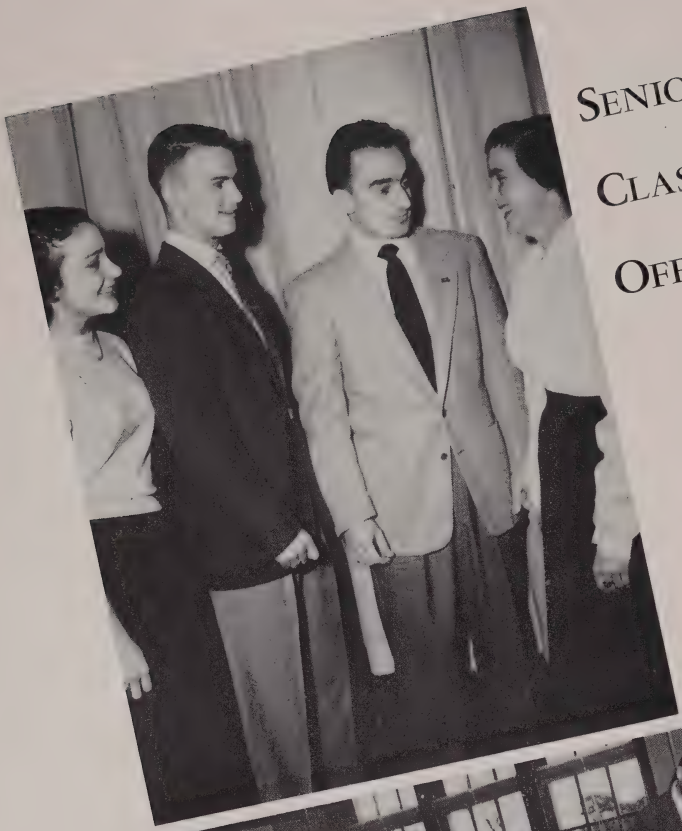


Senior Class Song

Words and Music By Mary Chase



Oh, Barn-sta-ble, we hail thee with this, our so-lemn view:
Our wis-dom, strength and ho-nor, all these we owe to you.
Our hopes through all the years have o- ver- come our fears;
The time is now at hand when we must take our stand.
Our joy-ful times we leave be-hind the fu-ture we face with se-rious mind,
And now with hearts that ring with praise;
Our thanks to thee we raise!



Senior Class Officers

1952 - 1953

Ann McLean ..... Treasurer

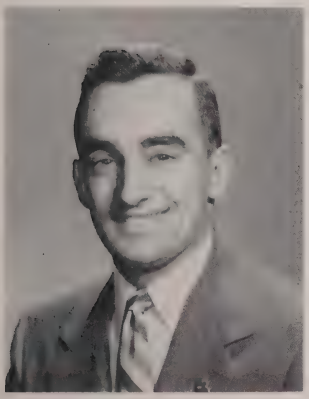
John Alfred Aalto

"I had rather have a fool to make me merry,
Than experience to make me sad."

Marstons Mills' pride and joy is noted for spirited humor and the "H.W. Special". Johnny has brightened many a drab moment with his optimistic attitude about life and love.



John Edward Alberghini

"O captain, my captain!"

Our captain of the stormy years can never be lauded sufficiently. Though reserved in manner, John was consistently dependable and proficient in both scholastic and extra-curricular activities.

Carol Louise Anderson

"A smiling face, fresh-hued and fair"

This attractive blond from Park Square, who is endowed with a lovely singing voice, has been a valuable addition to the Glee Club and song fests. Carol has an ever-ready smile and a friendly greeting for everyone.

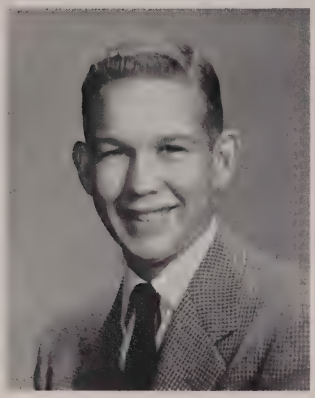
Band 10; Glee Club 10, 11, 12; Christmas Chorus 12; Cheerleader 12; Barnacle Advertising Staff 12; Hockey 10, 11; Bowling 11.

David Franklin Anderson

"He used to be shy, but look at him now!"

David is not only a handsome lad, but one we have to look up to! His red convertible is frequently filled with the favorites of the more amiable sex. With his buoyant personality, "Dave" should have little trouble battling the world.

Prom Committee 11.



Robert Nils Anderson

"I came, I saw, I conquered!"

This "Andy", a perpetual tease, is also a teller of tall tales. He has a joke for every occasion and an infectious laugh to accompany it. In his constant search for new worlds, he discovered the snake kingdom . . . a regular Frank Buck!

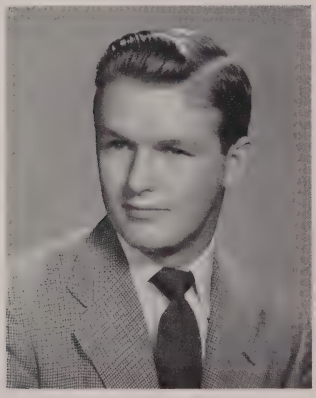
Traffic Squad 9; Ways and Means 11; Prom Committee 10, 11; French Club 11; Barnacle Advertising Staff 12; Glee Club 12; Christmas Chorus 12; Interclass Basketball 11; Senior Play 12.

Shirley Jane Andersen

"Impulsive, earnest, quick to act,
These make her generous thought a fact."

Did you know that we envied your complexion? But, Shirley, you proved to us that the "heart goes with the head", with your kindliness, generosity and refreshing friendliness.

Traffic Squad 10; Prom Committee 10, 11; Clipper 11; French Club 12; Picture Committee 12; Hockey 10, 11; Cheerleader 11, 12; Softball 11; Bowling 11, 12.



William Stuart Arthur

"He's not enormous, but one looks at him"

Scotland's gift to the Coast Guard shouldn'a hae much trouble writing his name in neon lights. This fellow has a good head on those attractive and well-dressed shoulders. Semper Paratus!

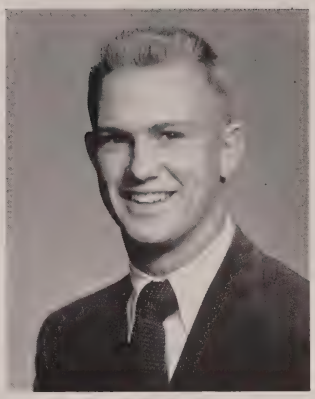
Glee Club 11, 12; Christmas Chorus 12; Football 11; Track 11.

Barbara Jean Baker

"Modest she seems, not shy"

Although bashful and retiring in her manner, "Barbie" was always quick to assist others and thus accomplished much for herself and others. Her good grades could well have been emulated by many students.

French Club 11; Basketball 9; Softball 9, 10.

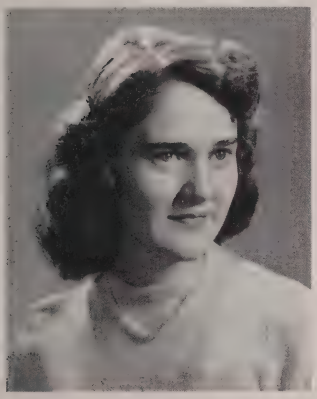


Robert Sturgis Behlman

"His greatest joy was eating all the while"

A flash on the football field and a streak roundin' third, headin' for home . . . that's Mr. Personality Plus! His favorite hobby is food, but he certainly doesn't show it. How do you do it?

Ways and Means 11, 12; Prom Committee 11; Basketball 10, 12; Football 9, 10, 11, 12; Baseball 9, 10, 11, 12.



Rita Marie Bray

"Sweet smiling and sweet spoken"

A twinkle in her eye and a smile on her pleasant countenance describes Rita. Always full of good Irish humor, she proves to be pleasing company in any crowd. When it comes to traffic duty, Rita is able and active. 'Tis the luck of the Irish we'd be wishin' her for the future.

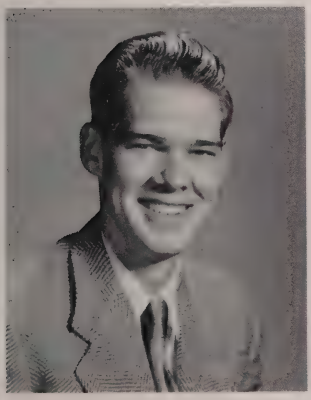
Traffic Squad 11, 12; Glee Club 10, 12; Clipper 11; Barnacle Advertising Staff 12.

Gail Brightman

"Bards of passion and of mirth
Ye have left your souls on earth."

Gail is "jest and jollity" brought to life! Her classroom quips have kept us roaring for six years. She definitely has a knack for getting away with murder. Ask Mr. Kilcoyne!

Glee Club 10; Clipper 12; Basketball 9, 10, 11, 12; Hockey 10.



Donald Richard Brown

"With head lifted, singing, proud to be alive!"

This good looking Lothario is responsible for many heartbreaks, but he's such a good fellow that we forgive him. Donny has a good singing voice, we hear, but he's headed for the wide blue yonder with Uncle Sam.

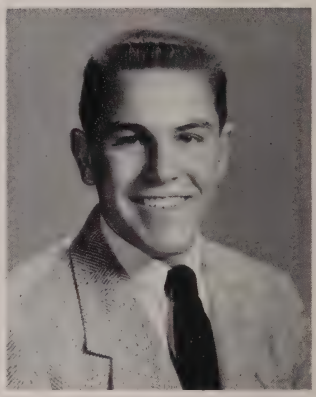
Glee Club 12; Christmas Chorus 12; Prom Committee 11; Slide Rule Club 9; Football 9; Track 11; Senior Play 12.

Elizabeth Ann Brown

"A maiden never bold"

We understand that B.H.S. has a sobering influence upon Bootsie's sense of humor. She is quiet, ladylike and pleasant to have around.

Clipper 11; Glee Club 10.



James Reed Burnham

"Such a gravel voiced wit"

Jimmy is the tall dark chap you've seen around. His athletic dexterity is matched by his conscientiousness.

Prom Committee 10, 11; Barnacle Advertising Staff 12; Football 9; Basketball 10, 11, 12; Interclass Volleyball 10; Baseball 11, 12; Interclass Basketball 9, 10, 11, 12.

Virginia Helen Cabral

"She is pretty, honest, gentle,
And one that is your friend."

Ginny is often seen, but rarely heard. That is unusual in this generation of young people. Her generosity and kindliness will win her just as many friends in life as she won in B.H.S.

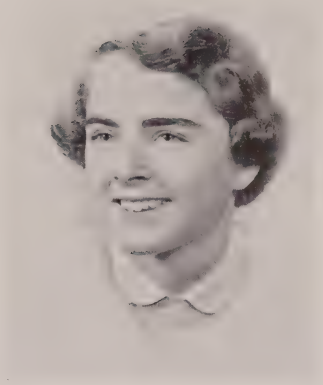
Hockey 11; Bowling 11, 12.

Franz Cahoon

"An honest mind and a plain"

Franz is another one of the silent seniors. We haven't figured out whether he is shy or just plain "ornery", 'cause we never seem to get a word out of him. We wish you happiness and success, Franz.

Barnacle Advertising Staff 12.



Gael Roberta Campana

"A day in April never came so sweet"

Sweet and shy, with a touch of the angelic, Gael is a conscientious student. She is quite an equestrienne, we hear . . . our idea of a perfect lady . . . feminine ways without feminine wiles.

Prom Committee 10, 11; Student Council 11, 12; Cheerleader 10, 11; Interclass Basketball 9; Interclass Hockey 9, 10, 11, 12; Softball 10, 11, 12.

David Chase Campbell

"He seemed busier than he was, I'd swear!"

Dave is a combination of Milton Berle and Jimmy Stewart. The humor is definitely there, but it emerges at the "darndest" times! Luck to you, but frankly, you'll get along without it.

Glee Club 12; Golf Team 11, 12; Interclass Volleyball 10.

Laurie Campbell

"No sinner, yet no saint perhaps"

Definitely the dreamer type, Laurie is seldom found with both feet on the ground. This petite Miss from Cotuit has many true companions who will long remember her gentleness.

Glee Club 10, 11, 12; Hockey 9, 10.

Arline Marie Carlson

"Blest be the one who dreams"

Arline is demure and reserved and we suspect she's riding clouds somewhere. Good luck in your secretarial training, Arline.

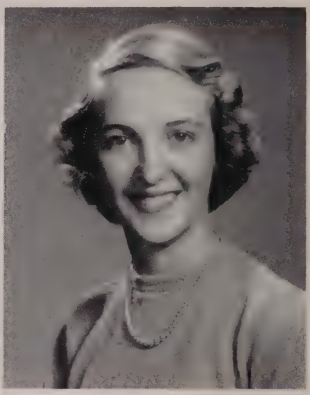
Clipper 11; Glee Club 12; Hockey 9.

Nancy Ann Carlson

"Tomorrow, do thy worst,
For I have lived today!"

"Hot rod" is usually found in or under a car. She has the enviable easy going temperament that prevents her from getting angry. We wish her well, be it in stock cars or Cadillacs.

'53 Club 9; Glee Club 11, 12.



Janice Page Caswell

"Your heart is as kind as your young eyes"

Walk into the Hyannis Pharmacy any hour, be it night or day, and you'll find Jan soda-jerking . . . Russ sitting nearby. Jan is one of the sweetest girls in these halls. Her sociability has brightened our school hours.

Glee Club 9, 10, 11, 12; '53 Club 9; New England Music Festival 10, 11; Clipper 11; Christmas Chorus 11; Barnacle Advertising Staff 12; Bowling 11.

Mary Eleanor Chase

"Why be speechless?"

Mary has the ability to back up her arguments. She made classes lively with her pro and con opinions. An A student, active worker and true sport.

'53 Club 9; Band 10, 11, 12; Glee Club 10, 11, 12; Christmas Chorus 12; French Club 11; Intramural Hockey 9, 10, 11, 12; Bowling 11.

Mary Anita Childs

"What tranquil joy her presence gives"

Erin's child with stars in her eyes and freckles on her nose, Mary has drawn a huge circle of friends. Mary is a walking flashlight and, believe it or not, she makes the brightness herself!

'53 Club 9; Clipper 9; Prom Committee 11; Glee Club 10, 11, 12; Bowling 11, 12.

Thomas Francis Cobb

"Who is better off now or next year?"

Tommy is the long-legged man you're apt to see wandering toward the boiler room. We don't see him too often, but when work is to be done for the class, he's there.

Jean Marie Coleman

"Her voice is such a sweet soprano!"

Here is the songbird of the Senior Class! Jeanie's voice has thrilled us many times . . . Glee Club concerts and talent shows. Her personality is every bit as sweet as her voice. She won't have trouble traveling in any direction she decides to turn.

Glee Club 11, 12; Christmas Chorus 11, 12.

Arthur Edward Cook

"The fields his study; Nature was his book"

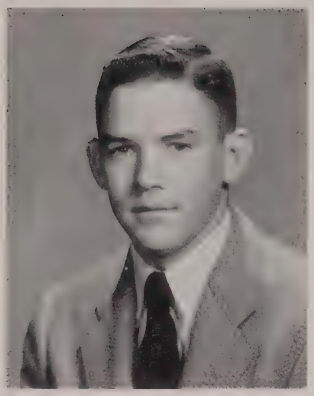
"Cookie" is the outdoor man of our class. He can "spin a yarn" with the best old timers of the Cape. He looks quite distinguished in his modernized Model A convertible! May you succeed in your endeavors, Arthur.

Catherine Alice Cotell

"Of spirit so still and quiet"

Catherine is a very modest, petite girl. Her quietness, however, comes from assurance and sincerity. At least she never had detention for talking too much!

Baton Twirling 10; Hockey 11, 12; Bowling 11, 12.



Sean Howard Cummings

"His conversation does not show the minute hand,
but he strikes the hour very correctly."

On the football field, you didn't have to look too long for Sean, but in the school, we always had trouble finding him. He was so unobtrusive, but oh . . . so brainy and so-o-o good looking!

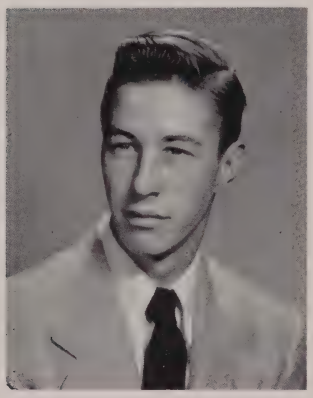
Prom Committee 10, 11; JV Football 10, 11, 12.

Claire Marie Davidson

"A cheerful heart, a wise content"

If anyone was ever mis-cast, it was Claire. Gretchen Shnozzledorfe and Claire are worlds apart! She certainly brought down the house . . . 'twill be hard to forget her acting. Actually, she is very calm and pleasantly quiet.

Glee Club 10, 11; Clipper 11; Prom Committee 11; Basketball 10; Hockey 10, 11, 12; Bowling 11, 12; Senior Play 12.

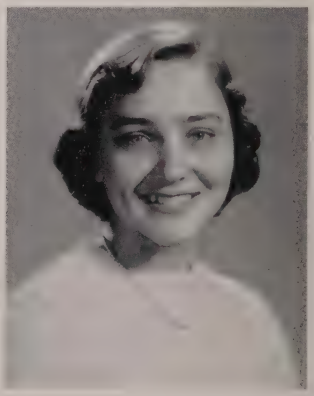


Robert Otto Davidson

"An honest gentleman and handsome"

Bobby may have been a trifle reluctant in classes, but when it came to sports, he was no slow man! His easy-going manner created for him a host of pals.

JV Football 9; Baseball 10, 11; Football 11, 12; Basketball 12.

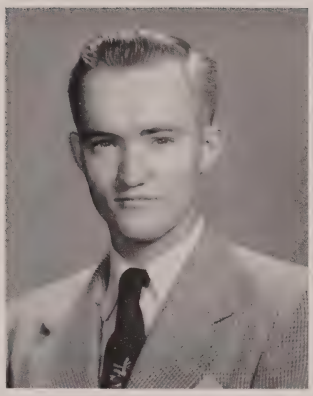


Sally Ann Dixon

"The lovely shall be choosers"

Sally's terrific personality, sportsmanship and auburn-haired beauty make her one of the most popular girls in B.H.S. Justifiably so! She has a generous mixture of fun and will to work which will help her throughout life.

Class Secretary 10, 11, 12; Traffic Squad 10, 11, 12; Prom Committee 11; Ways and Means Secretary 10, 11; Cheerleading 12; Softball 9, 10, 11; Hockey 9, 10, 11, 12; Interclass Hockey 10, 11, 12; Basketball 11, 12; Bowling 11; Interclass Basketball 10.



Richard John Fish

"A man of strength, with jutting jaw!"

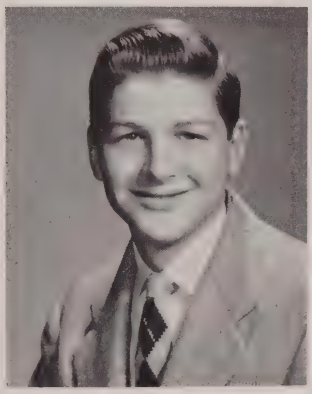
Richard, a newcomer to our school, hides himself most of the time in the machine shop. Those who met him, speak of him as a true friend.

Caleb Fraser

"And laughed fit to kill,
And shook the town."

"Caloupe" was sent to us from Falmouth when we were ninth graders. The football squad utilized him pronto. His faithfulness and cooperation won him the co-captaincy of the undefeated Red Raiders of '52. He has many close friends at Barnstable.

Football 9, 10, 11; Track 9, 10, 11.



Edward Joseph Gagnon

"A mighty man was he"

Ed is a newcomer to B.H.S. and we didn't get to know him too well. We feel this to be our loss. We can tell you that he was an honor student and sincere friend to those privileged to know him.

Kalliope George Garoufes

"Thy smiles become thee well."

Kalliope sometimes makes us sit up and take notice with her unexpected comments on B.H.S. and life in general. She steps out of a bandbox and is the envy of all clothes conscious seniors.

'53 Club 9; Prom Committee 11; Hockey 11; Bowling 11, 12.

Helen Elizabeth George

"There was such speed in her little body"

Helen is one of our talented artists and consequently was a distinct help on many decoration committees. Not only is she aesthetic, but she is athletic. You missed something if you didn't see her play basketball!

'53 Club 9; Cheerleader 10, 11, 12; Glee Club 10, 11; Prom Committee 11; Barnacle Staff 12; Basketball 9, 10, 11, 12; Hockey 9, 10, 11, 12; Interclass Basketball 9, 10; Bowling 11; Softball 11.

Maria Rosario Gomes

"A happy disposition"

Maria crossed the ocean to join us in the seventh grade. We're glad she did, for she inspired many of us with her desire to learn. She speaks perfect English now. Her friendly manner and active interest in activities have made her one of the B.H.S. crowd.

Glee Club 11, 12; Hockey 9, 10; Interclass Basketball 9, 10; Softball 10; Bowling 11, 12.

Ann Victorine Goode

"I saw the proper twinkle in your eye"

Ann is the gal with the flaming red hair and husky voice. She has fired and fanned the humor in many classrooms. She has chased away many ugly dispositions through her amiable humor.

Glee Club 10; Baton Twirling 9, 10; Clipper 12; Bowling 11, 12.

Kenneth Stanley Grace

"You are a merry man, sir!"

Kenny always seems to get a kick from living. His quiet humor has tickled the funny bones of students time and time again. He is animatedly active, but never in a hurry. Responsible for Senior Play back stage activities . . . most dependable.

Football 12.

Sally Ann Greene

"A maid of grace and complete modesty"

One of the Barnstable "gang", Sally is everyone's "bon confidant". Serene, understanding and conscientious, she has the strength of her own wise convictions. From pure affection, we nicknamed her "Grandma".

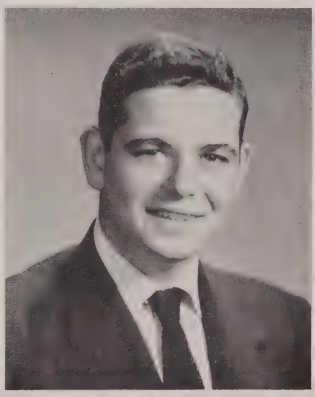
Student Council 10, 11, 12; Glee Club 10, 11, 12; Traffic Squad 11, 12; Prom Committee 10, 11; Barnacle Advertising Staff 12; Hockey 10, 11, 12; Bowling 11, 12.

Madeline Margaret Guerin

"Friendly and forthright"

A newcomer to B.H.S. this year, Madeline placed her pleasant personality in the Business Course. With her keen wit and infectious happiness, she quickly gained many friends. She was Miss Hayden's "friendly antagonist" and added a dash of humor to the shorthand class. May your future be pleasant, Madeline.

Barnacle Advertising Staff 12; Glee Club 12.



Thomas Wallace Hadley

"The devil hath power to assume a pleasing shape"

Everyone knows "always leave 'em laughing" Hadley! His contagious humor invades the quietest corners in the manner of a whirlwind on a breezeless day. His bubbling personality is a guarantee of a good life.

Barnacle Editor-in-Chief 12; Boys' State 11; Prom Committee 10, 11; Golf 10, 11, 12; Football Mgr. 10, 11, 12; Senior Play 12.

Betsey Hall

"All I ask is a tall ship
And a star to steer her by."

Pulchritude plus intelligence . . . equals one of our smartest seniors . . . Betsey. She may concentrate on books during school time but when the weather is warm, she sails the mighty main! College days are ahead for Betsey and we feel certain of outstanding success for her.

Prom Committee 11; Hockey 10, 11, 12; Softball 10, 11, 12; Bowling 11.

Rosemary Harman

"It's nice to be natural, when you're naturally nice."

Drop in at the skating rink and you'll find artist Rosemary. Her talents aren't limited to the rink, however, for she is a wonder with needles and yarn. We'll remember her as the girl with the biggest blue eyes and the shy-y-est smile.

Glee Club 10.

Judith Anne Higgins

"One whom we knew; a student and a poet."

Every so often we hear a still, small voice make an impossibly droll statement and we know that Judy has arrived. Her pep and unquenchable enthusiasm have made her our beloved Imogene.

Marilyn Hope Jacobson

"Stately and tall, she moves in the hall,
The chief of a thousand for grace."

Lynn is the stately one . . . tall . . . poised in walk . . . familiar to all. She is an active member of the basketball team and is quite famous for her bass drum playing in the band. We suspect that Marilyn might be a very good lawyer.

Richard Walton Jones

"Good nature is one of the richest fruits of personality."

"Gramp" is about the nicest man around. As a class member, he's always willing to give a hand and help out with anything. He's a definite must for all active groups.

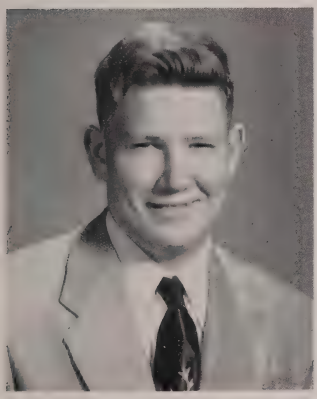
Football 10, 11, 12.

Anna Belle Kelley

"I turned in dazed wonder
Thinking of sleep."

Anna has enlivened many Psych classes with her views on human behavior. She always seems to come out with the right answers! Don't ever lose that blessed common sense . . . it fits you well.

'53 Club 9; Glee Club 10, 11, 12.



Paul Brooks Kelly

"The cartoonist is the master of satire."

Brooks doesn't look like a cartoonist. If you've seen him on the gridiron, you'd be hard put to imagine pen and brush in his hand. His humor is unrestrained, be it on paper or in conversation. His individuality should carry him far in the field of art.

Paul Edwin Kyllonen

"He gives the impression of knowledge without being voluble."

Paul is seldom heard, but you can be sure he is meditating in the background. He wants to go into radio and TV engineering, where we're positive he'll succeed.

Joan Marie Labelle

"With her sweet harmony
And her other chosen attractions."

Joan's serious blue eyes merely cover up her sweet personality. She is usually seen driving around with a score of friends in her car. She is a whiz of a typist . . . always at the top of her class. Joan will get the most from life with her sincerity and model efficiency.

Edward Thomas Richard Landers

"I exist as I am
That is enough!"

It's trite, we know, but Ed is tall, dark and handsome! His grave friendliness and congeniality account for his fine work in class affairs.

Prom Committee 11.

William Lenton Landrie

"I am allergic to energy!"

Bill was averse to expenditure of energy, we fear, but was so long, lanky and likable that we forgive him. Reserved in school, but outside? Well!

Virginia Ethel Leeman

"Serene against the savage waves"

Ginny is as modest and unassuming as a person can be. She is quiet on the surface, but she can always produce a bright smile quickly. Virginia can be depended upon to do what is right, for she is conscientious and reliable.

Anne Howland Maraspin

"Her moods as changing as the stars in the skies"

It just isn't fair for one individual to have good looks AND intelligence. Believe it or not, Anne is both switchboard and hot-rod mechanic. Jackson College is claiming an unaffected and good-natured student.

Traffic Squad 12.

Clara M. Marchant

"Never say die!"

Her outward aspect points to seriousness. This character trait, however, has made her a perfect sportsman and an avid enthusiast of school sports. Though her plans are indefinite, we know she will qualify in her chosen field.

Hockey 9, 10, 11; Softball 9, 10, 11.

Edison Calvin Marney

"I trust everybody, but I always cut the cards!"

A well liked fellow with a subtle sense of fun, but he has a penchant for getting caught! His pleasant manners and friendly grin will be remembered by all

Louise Frances McDonough

"To be gullible is to be found out"

The star of the Business Course is our Louise. She has an Irish twinkle that appears frequently. Energetic, vivacious and versatile all describe Louise. But she loses so many things!

"She knows what is what!"

You may see two red-headed girls walking through the corridors . . . both look the same! Here is Jean . . . always ready with a relevant comment on the topic under discussion. Jean sees both the serious and funny side of life. May you enjoy your training at St. Anne's.

Prom Committee 11.

Joan Amelia McElhaney

"Unaccustomed as I am to public speaking"

Here we have the other redheaded girl! Joan follows the quiet path of life, except for an occasional burst of temper. But it never gets the best of Joan, for she snaps back to good nature before you can bat your eyelashes. Her future plans include work in a children's orphanage. Best of luck, Joan.

Marjorie Ruth McGillis

"Gentlemen prefer blondes"

Her hair is the envy of many B.H.S. girls. Though she is unobtrusive most of the time, she is a valuable asset to any party. Her efficiency in the Business Course proves that she will be someone's perfect secretary.

Baton Twirling 9, 10; Prom Committee 11; Glee Club 11, 12; Hockey 11, 12.

Louise Theresa McIntyre

"The sunshine of your smile"

Take a pair of sparkling eyes, blond hair, big smile and a tan that never seems to fade . . . mix well . . . and you'll recreate Louise! We've really enjoyed this girl from the Sunshine State. We wish her happiness.

Hockey 9, 10; Softball 10; Bowling 12.

Elaine Murphy

"She dances featly,
So she does everything."

Add another Barnstable "gang" member! Elaine is poised, demure and extremely versatile. How any one can act like Dolly Lightfoot one moment and Lucy Ball the next is beyond our comprehension, but most agreeable to us. Whatever she does, "Murph" can hold her own with the very best.

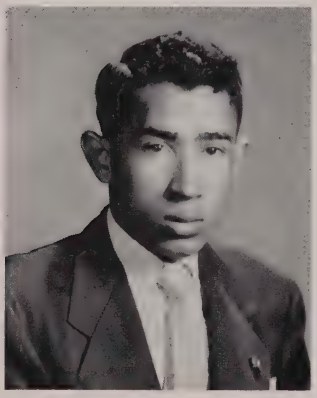
"He will never watch the clock,
And always mind the boss."

Bobby is the boy with the grin, and what a grin! He usually looks asleep, but we think he's just hiding that gray matter he has. His occasional subtle sense of humor is surprising.

Baseball 9; Football 9, 10, 11, 12.



James Howard Pells

"Here is a tall bold slugger"

How one can say the funniest things and still maintain a serious exterior is confusing, but Jimmy can do just that. The most unexpected comedian around our halls, this boy never worries and probably will never have to. "Such wit the very gods are made of!"

Track 10, 11; Golf 10, 11.

Beverly Ann Perry

"Such grace and charm"

Bev's unexpected and entirely charming wit was merely one facet of her sympathetic and soothing personality. Here is one "rebel" we could never dislike. We're glad you came to the North, Bev.

Bowling 12.

Adrianne Elizabeth Petridis

"A full, rich nature, free to trust"

"Sugar, spice and everything nice" . . . loads of each . . . that's Adrianne. She was always willing to inconvenience herself for the success of others. She is a friend who wears well.

"A friend to all, with many friends"

Leslie has been a valuable classmate . . . we missed her when she went to California for two years. Her warm, affable manner and quiet assurance will stand her in good stead during her nursing days. She won't have trouble with her patients!

'53 Club 9; Glee Club 12; Hockey 9, 12; Bowling 12.

Carol Jacqueline Renzi

"That Mercury were half so swift"

A streak of lightning on the basketball court, baseball diamond and hockey field, Carol well deserves the title of most versatile. She possesses the 3 N's, naturalness, neatness and niceness.

Patricia Richards

"She moves a goddess and looks a queen"

A flair for fashion and common sense are seldom found together. But this best-dressed lass had both in ample quantity. She was no "empty-headed clotheshorse".

'53 Club 9; Clipper 9; Glee Club 10, 11, 12; Prom Committee 10.

Etta Beatrice Robbins

"What is life, without fun"

If there is trouble afoot in a classroom, you can bet that Etta B. is right there in the middle! She can, however, be very serious and energetic when the situation demands attention.

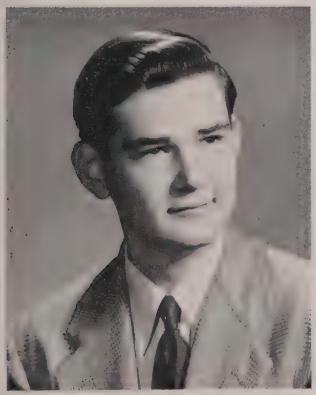
Glee Club 10, 11.

Ernest August Rohdenburg, IV

"'Tis important to be earnest!"

E.A.R., the IV, has the rather eccentric, but likable characteristics that make him stand out. That "oh, so dry" humor is responsible for many ripples of student laughter. His inward drive and "ernest" ambition have caused both faculty and students to respect and admire him.

Glee Club 10, 11, 12; Christmas Chorus 12; Dramatic Club 11; French Club 11; Traffic Squad 12; Senior Play 12.



Arnold Bert Rovner

"Here is a man to hold against the world"

Our "blushing Romeo" would undoubtedly look better on a white charger than in a "hot rod", for a more chivalrous gentleman is not to be found. "Arnie's" intelligence and brain power will carry him successfully through the years.

Glee Club 10, 11, 12; Christmas Chorus 12; Dramatic Club 11; French Club 11; Traffic Squad 12; Senior Play 12.

Janet Coleman Ryder

"O dark-haired beauty"

All you have to do is find the girl with the longest pony tail and that will be Janet. One of the most intelligent girls in the Business Course, Janet is also one of the nicest. Her pleasantness has made her many long and lasting friends.

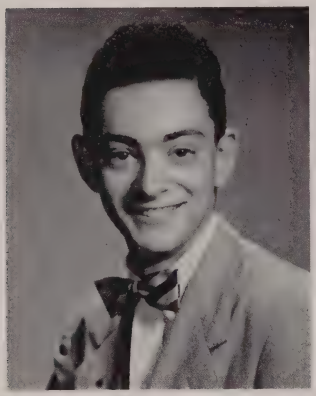
"Go to it, O jazzman!"

Teddy has walked in the footsteps of his brothers, Joe and Jimmy, in the band and orchestra. His musical talents are outstanding and his witty remarks have made many a rehearsal sunny. In short, he's "real gone" . . . ma-a-n!

Band 9, 10, 11, 12; Orchestra 9, 12; Track 9.



Sheldon Bernard Segerman

"He was all business"

Dashing hither and yon was one of Sheldon's favorite pastimes. The things he accomplished in his dashing, however, proved that his trips were never in vain. Evidence? . . . the Barnacle Advertising Staff.

Clipper 9, 10; Barnacle Staff 12; Track 10, 11; Senior Play 12.

Dorothy Alice Siddall

"She would play sweetly on the violin"

A burst of laughter and there stands Dottie! Jumping from the college to the business and to the general course, Dottie maintained her high grades. In her future college days, Dottie will be more than willing to provide the fun.

Glee Club 11, 12; Band 9, 10, 11, 12; Orchestra 9, 10, 11, 12; Band and Orchestra Secretary 10, 11, 12.

Anne Slavin

"I never do anything very bad,
But I always get caught!"

Mischief? If there is any, you know that "Heiffer" will be there! Purely optimistic, Anne can find the funny side of all serious situations. Nothing worries her, which makes her a very popular Senior.

Edward Souza Jr.

"It seems so easy to be good-natured,
I wonder anyone takes the trouble to be anything else."

Eddie is a bit on the short side, but he compensates for this lack with looks and vibrant personality. He is an avid hot rod fan and a charter member of the "Gear Grinder's Club". We wish him well in the Air Force.

Track 9.

Nancy Stearns

"Hail to thee, Blithe Spirit!"

Nancy did a superb job as coke salesman at our basketball games . . . no wonder we made money! She has been a fine telephone operator and we predict that she will be an able and efficient nurse.

Gregory Lee Tallman

"He never did a thing so very bad"

Greg is always ready to listen and sometimes enjoy the old jokes of the students. For this sympathetic understanding, we love him. "Tuffy" hopes to enter the Navy, but wherever he goes, we'll follow his career.

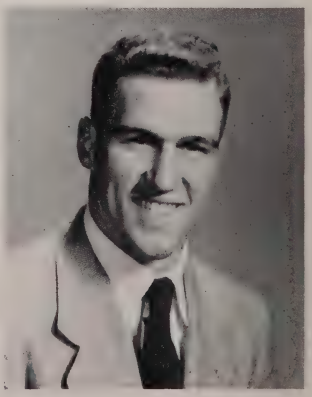
Prom Committee 10, 11; Football 10, 11, 12; Track 10; Basketball 10.

Sally Anne Taylor

"When Sally burns the midnight oil,
It's usually in the crankcase."

Sally is a tiny girl with a big heart. Her sparkle and singular gift of gab have brought the sun to the gloomiest face. Her chums will miss her when she leaves Cape Cod for the higher planes of airline training.

Dramatic Club 11; Bowling 11, 12.



Paul Ronald Thomas

"If he were perfect, one would admire him more, but love him less."

Paul is one fellow who is universally respected and liked. A star at football, basketball and baseball . . . he retains his modest, down to earth nature. His gentlemanly manners will carry "Bucket" as far as he likes.

Prom Committee 10, 11; Baseball 9, 10, 11, 12; Football 9, 10, 11, 12; Basketball 10, 11, 12.

"As pretty and as frothy as a day in summer."

Betty is light-hearted and pleasant to have around. She keeps her chums in a gay and merry mood and her teachers awake. She is dreaming her way through now . . . a little house with a white picket fence! Best of luck, Betty.

Glee Club 11; Dramatic Club 11.

Carol Van Buren

"Her laugh will lead you to the place
Where lies the happiness you want."

Carol's activities have been varied, the sign of an all-round student. Her pep and cooperation made her a star guard on the basketball team and a valuable member of the Glee Club. She always had true interest in her activities.

"Tut, man! Won't you admit
To one honest escapade?"

Billy is another of the Osterville crew and is more fun than a bushel of clowns! His ready smile and fun loving nature make him a hit wherever he goes.

Glee Club 12; Physical Improvement Club 10; Track 9.

Dorothy May Whiteley

"Be her first joy her wedding!"

Dotty is another all-round student . . . has been ever since she entered the seventh grade. She was one of the originators of the '53 Club. Dotty has been a steady class worker all through school. "How-we" will get along without her is hard to say!

Colin John Woodbury

"You never guess what's going on inside him."

A man of very few words and scarce personal appearances, for he hides in that shop all the time. He's one "real guy", however, as people all over the country will tell you! Colin was a valuable back stage man for the Senior Play. We wish him the best of life.

Joyce Cecilia Wordell

"Optimism is a stubborn fire"

A shy, yet determined girl, Joyce has an eye for the future. Her stubborn streak is mighty hard to break, but we can't help but like her. Her silent and determined efforts will reward her amply.

Barnstable High School Orchestra

B. H. S. Musical Activities

UNDER the direction of music supervisors, Mr. Simon Gesin and Miss Dorothy Barton, Barnstable offered an active program for those who were musically inclined.

The Boys' Glee Club was an ensemble of harmonious voices. The members had many enjoyable rehearsals, but it was hard work too. They sang at both Junior and Senior high assemblies during the Christmas season. The Hyannis Woman's Club and the Rotary Club were also privileged to hear their melodious performances.

Seniors who participated were Donald Brown, Arnold Rouner, David Campbell, Ernest Rohdenburg and Robert Anderson.

Miss Dorothy Barton directed the Girls' Glee Club. They performed at Junior and Senior high assemblies, Hyannis Woman's Club and Rotary Club. Senior members of both Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs will perform at graduation of the Senior Class in June.

Boys' Glee Club

Barnstable High School Band

The Barnstable High School Orchestra practised regularly but their public performances were missed. However, we will hear them perform at our graduation.

David Lorrett, viola artist, attended the New England Music Festival held in Brookline in March. David Lorrett, Dorothy Siddall and Teddy Santos were senior class members of the orchestra.

Perhaps the most popular and most active musical organization at Barnstable was the Band, directed by Simon Gesin. They played at all football games, all school rallies and school assemblies. Their contribution to school spirit cannot be measured.

Whenever public performances of community activities needed pep, the school band was there to supply it. We saw the band in many community parades and village gatherings.

Senior members of the band included Nancy Stearns, David Lorrett, Deborah Howes, Marilyn Jacobson, Mary Chase and Jane Walley.

Clipper Staff

SINCE the Clipper was reorganized in 1936, this student publication group has issued consistently a good school magazine. The Clipper has brought continual enjoyment to us and has brought distinction to the school. As a member of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, the paper has won many prizes.

During 1952-1953 school year, three fine issues were published. Judith Lagergren was the Captain and Judith Higgins was first mate. Faculty members guiding the staff were Mrs. Catherine Towey, editorial advisor, Mrs. Blanche Waldman, business advisor and Mr. Vernon Coleman, art advisor.

Other staff members were Ann Goode, Gail Brightman, Lois Gaylord, Barbara Coggeshall, Dorice Allain, Linda Thomas, and Judith Mulvey.

Traffic Squad

THE Traffic Squad was formed three years ago by the Student Council under the direction of Mr. Henry Levinson. This group of honor students from the Barnstable Senior High has done a fine job in keeping the corridors quiet and orderly. Chief Marshal for 1952-1953 was Jane Walley, while Floor Marshals were Shirley Lewis, Deborah Howes and John Alberghini. Other Seniors were Kathleen Sullivan, Adrianne Petridis, David Campbell, Sally Greene, Rita Bray, Janet Ryder, Marianne Poole, Paul Thomas, and Sally Dixon. A great deal of the praise for the squad goes to Mr. Levinson, advisor for the students.

Student Council

THE Student Council is set up with the intent of promoting a more harmonious and co-operative relationship between the students and the administration. The primary activity of this past year was the writing of a constitution for a proposed chapter of the Barnstable High School Honor Society. Members of this new organization will be elected students who qualify in scholarship, service, leadership and character.

Other activities supervised by the Council included class elections, nominations for Good Government Day representatives and ushering at Education Week Open House.

Under the able guidance of Mr. Henry Levinson of the faculty, the following served as officers: Sally Greene, President; Jacqueline Howe, Vice-President, and Elaine Murphy, Secretary-Treasurer.

THERE was great joy and excitement around Barnstable High when the Red Raiders opened the 1952 season with a victory. The 53 to 7 upset over Nantucket made many believe that our coaches had launched another undefeated team.

The winning streak persisted as the Raiders crushed Abington 33 to 6. New Bedford High proved a stubborn team, but our boys matched their stubbornness by playing a 0 to 0 game. Now the Raiders realized that they couldn't succeed without spirit! They swung back into flashy action by defeating New Bedford Voke 19 to 7 and Fairhaven 27 to 20. Hopes were really at a high point when Barnstable met Wareham on a pleasant Saturday. The Raiders were somewhat unprepared for their first defeat of 25 to 14. To lose a game after a winning streak of 13 games was bitter, but as the French say, "C'est la vie!" (Maybe we should say, "C'est la guerre!") Supported by loyal Junior Boosters, however, the boys snapped back to win the remaining three games; with Plymouth 27 to 6, Attleboro 32 to 0 and Falmouth 25 to 8. The traditional Thanksgiving game gave the Raiders a record of seven wins, one loss and one tie.

At the annual Boosters' Club banquet, trophies were awarded to Paul Thomas, Brooks Kelly and George Maddox. The Hinkle trophy and Most Valuable Player award were presented to Thomas. The most Improved Player awards were given to Kelly and Maddox.

The unexcelled coaching of Mr. Leo Shields and Mr. Elliot MacSwan prepared the Raiders for the superb football season of 1952. It is impossible to give in words the praise which the team and coaches deserve.

Bowling

UNDER the guidance and supervision of Miss Nehubian, many Barnstable girls enjoyed a new sport. Twelve bowling teams held matches at the Mill Hill Bowling Alleys. The girls contributed a small sum each week, which was used for a banquet at the end of the year. Trophies and awards were awarded to outstanding bowlers.

Field Hockey

BARBARA Pierce's field hockey team defeated all other teams in the '52 interscholastic competition. Victory after victory! The first was over Constance Perry's team by a score of 7 to 0. They then topped Barbara Coggeshall's team by a score of 4 to 2. They gained first place by defeating Pat Dudley's team 4 to 0. The Seniors defeated the Sophomores 5 to 0, thus winning the Intramural Hockey tournament. The Juniors and Freshmen forfeited.

Both Helen George and Mary Lewis ended the season with 4 field goals apiece. Other outstanding players were Nancy Cross, Gael Campana, Kathleen Sullivan, Anne Slavin and Sally Dixon.

The sportsmanship and clean fun enjoyed by the girls, compensated for cracked knuckles and skinned knees. The participants all feel extremely grateful to their coach, Miss Nehubian.
